3) How we protect your personal data

- a) We have implemented a policy and data retention protocol designed to protect personal data from loss, misuse, or, unauthorised alteration or destruction.
- b) We will not transfer your personal data outside the European Economic Area without your consent.
- c) Please note, however, that where you are transmitting data to us over the internet this can never be guaranteed to be 100% secure.
- d) We will notify you promptly in the event of any breach of your personal data which might expose you to serious risk.

4) Who else has access to the information you provide to us?

- a) We will never sell your personal data. We will not share your personal data with any third parties without your prior consent (which you are free to withhold) except where required to do so by law or as set out in the table above or paragraph 4.b below.
- b) We may pass your personal data to third parties who are service providers, agents and subcontractors to us for the purposes of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf (e.g. to print newsletters and send you mailings). However, we disclose only the personal data that is necessary for the third party to deliver the service and we have a contract in place that requires them to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own purposes.
- c) We may also pass your personal data to the RYA for the purpose of carrying out surveys when it is in the legitimate interest of the Club and the RYA to do so. The RYA may use third parties to carry out the surveys but disclose only the personal data that is necessary for the third party to do so and will have a contract in place that requires the third party to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own purposes.

5) How long do we keep your information?

- a) We will hold your personal data on our systems for as long as you are a member of the Club and for as long afterwards as is necessary to comply with our legal obligations. We will review your personal data every year to establish whether we are still entitled to process it. If we decide that we are not entitled to do so, we will stop processing your personal data except that we will retain your personal data in an archived form in order to be able to comply with future legal obligations e.g. compliance with tax requirements and exemptions, and the establishment exercise or defence of legal claims.
- b) We securely destroy all financial information once we have used it and no longer need it.

6) Your rights

- a) You have rights under the General Data Protection Regulations
 - i) To access your personal data
 - ii) To be provided with information about how your personal data is processed
 - iii) To have your personal data corrected
 - iv) To have your personal data erased in certain circumstances
 - v) To object to or restrict how your personal data is processed
 - vi) To have your personal data transferred to yourself or to another business in certain circumstances
- b) You have the right to take any complaints about how we process your personal data to the Information Commissioner:
